

Tax Alert!

“

I won't support new taxes on the unemployed families struggling to pay the rent in order to give pay increases to those who already have jobs.

The 2003 legislative session ended on April 27, but lawmakers must return to Olympia for a special session to complete work on the state's two-year operating budget.

A budget plan supported by Republicans in both the House and Senate, and endorsed by the governor, would balance the state budget without tax increases. But the no-new-tax budget was blocked by Democrat leaders in the House who wanted tax increases in order to give pay raises to public employees.

The House Democrats' final budget required $360 million in tax increases in order to pay for $460 million in pay raises for public employees.

Some of the House Democrat "revenue" increasing ideas include a general increase in the sales tax, prematurely confiscating dormant bank accounts, new taxes on cigarettes and liquor, expanding statewide gambling, and adding the sales tax to candy and gum. And much more!

Because of this insistence on new taxes, a special session of the Legislature is now needed to finish work on the budget. The special session begins May 12.

My hope is that the budget is balanced without new taxes. Government must live within its means.

My priority is jobs. Tax increases would hurt our already struggling economy. I won't support new taxes on the unemployed families struggling to pay the rent in order to give pay increases to those who already have jobs.

No new taxes! I believe the state must live within its means.

☐

I support tax increases...to give pay raises to public employees and pay for other increases in government spending.
